I cannot tell when the testimony will be continued to-morrow and every day until it is finished.

I cannot tell when the testimony will be presented to the Grand Jury said process. The matter is much marray of figures to be gone into. All I can say is that no time will be lost in laying the matter before the Grand Jury. "I want to say right now," he added, "that there is not a word of truth in the story, published that pressure has been brought to bear upon me, or upon any, one else in this office, to hold back the prosecution of this case. On the face of it, it is silly. Nobody will attempt anything of the kind for the reason that it would avail nothing. As I have said, the cases will be pushed as fast as possible.

I am not in a position to answeryour question whether any other persons are implicated in the bank wreed, ing," continued Mr. Davis. "We have not got to that stage of the case yet. I will not say that other names are not under consideration."

Mr. Untermeyer also denied that any pressure had been brought to bear upon him. He proposed prosecuting as hard as possible.

Judge Martine went up to the Imperial Hotel last night and made permanent the temporary bonds given for Director Kursheed the day after his arrest.
